DATE OF REPORT: 25 June 1954

SOURCE, SOURCE EVALUATION, APPRAISAL OF CONTENT: Individual with contacts

1. Anton SORG, an exiled Hungarian industrialist, recently wrote from Germany to Ricardo STAUDT in Buenos Aires, informing him in detail about the praiseworthy activities of Bundestag President EHLERS and Refugee Minister Theodor OBERLAENDER, through whom close relations and collaboration with East European exiled groups friendly to Germany have been established. Argentina
2. In his letter, SORG concerned himself primarily with the military-nationalist group of Hungarian General ZAKO, which is being organized throughout the world into a tightly-knit veterans' organization (MHBK). This veterans' organization recently created a German-Hungarian officers' society in Munich, permission for which was received immediately from the German authorities at the behest of OBERLAENDER and BLANK's Office. According to SORG, this officers' society provides a sort of camouflage for the cooperation between the ZAKO-FARKAS Group and the counter-espionage organization of BLANK's Office. Selected members of the MHBK net are to develop an intelligence service throughout the world for the mutual benefit of ZAKO and BLANK's Office. General ZAKO's periodical, Hungary, which is published in Munich, has been given a monthly subsidy of 2,000 marks from the Press Fund of the Federal Chancellor's office. ZAKO's principal emissaries in Bonn, former Col. SZILAGYI and Count LONYAY, have established very close contact with two Generals of BLANK's Office. They have been successful in completely isolating the former Colonel-General HENNYEY, representative in Bonn of the Hungarian National Council, located in New York. They accomplished this by publicizing the fact that, as Foreign Minister in Admiral HORTHY's Cabinet, he agreed to request an armistice from the Russians, and therefore betrayed his German allies. Andras

3. SORG reported further on the Slovak group, mentioning specifically ~~Dr. DURGANSKY~~, who formerly lived in Argentina, and ~~Dr. CERNAK~~; the Croat group and its leader, ~~Dr. JELIC~~; and the Rumanian group, all of whom are in contact with West German Government figures and the BLANK Office, as old proven "allies", but claimed that the Hungarian Nationalists constitute by far the most important of these exiled groups.

① Source Comment: SORG, who has lived in Buenos Aires about five years, is very wealthy. He maintains close contact with the ~~REDEL~~ Group, including Ludwig ~~FREUDE~~, Ludwig ~~FINSTERBUC~~, Ricardo ~~STAUDT~~, Ernesto ~~MEUER~~, and others. Two years ago SORG's daughter married Jorge ~~MORONI~~, son of the former Minister of Agriculture in Mussolini's Government. At present, SORG is the President of the Centro Hungaro in Buenos Aires, ^{Argentina} the central office of the ~~Hungarian Associations in Argentina~~, in which the Right Radicalists won the election as board members last year. A few weeks ago SORG travelled to Germany for the purpose of integrating the Centro Hungaro and the newly founded ~~South American Federation of Hungarian Groups~~ into a New World Association whose founding is planned by General ZAKO and Ferenc ~~FARKAS~~ as a counterpart to the Hungarian National Council presided over by ~~(President Monsignor) BELA VARGA~~, which ^{the belief is} according to ^{the} them is a leftist organization financed by the U.S. ^{State}
